(b) if so, the details thereof,

(c) whether the Management has also worked out arrears to be paid to the workers who retired before 1.4.2004; and

(d) if so, the details thereof ?

Answer

MINISTER OF THE STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF TEXTILES (SHRI SHANKERSINH VAGHELA)

(a) & (b): Pursuant to orders of the Hon`ble Supreme Court dated 14.10.2003 in Civil Appeal No. 14572 of 1996 filed by Clerical Staff Unions claiming parity in pay with clerical staff in Corporate Offices, the Govt. has decided for the following reliefs:

(1) The basic of employees affected by the Supreme Court order may be fixed with effect from 1.4.2004 by including the following amounts:

(i) Basic Pay as on 1.1.97 + Ad-hoc payments if any +HCA (High Cost Allowance payable to some employees @ Rs.30/- to Rs.45/- per month) if any.

(ii) Corresponding DA as on 1.1.1997

(iii) 20% of the(i) + (ii) if there has been no revision since 1987.
(2) The new Basic Pay will be determined by placing the basic in a revised scale of pay, which will be worked out by NTC.

(c)& (d): No Sir. The benefit is given to only those employees who are working in the 53 revival mills and paid w.e.f. 1.4.2004.
